China Overseas Investment Fair

Mr Michael Jones
President
Australia-China Chamber of Commerce & Industry

April 2009

Dear Mr Michael Jones,

In order to promote the development and cooperation of China overseas investment and fulfill the mutual benefits of countries all over the world, with the approval of the National Development and Reform Commission and the endorsement of the relevant ministries of State Council of P.R. China, the First China Overseas Investment Fair hosted by China Industrial Overseas Development & Planning Association will convene in China World Trade Center, Beijing on November 3-4, 2009.

Under the instruction of the National Development and Reform Commission and on the basis of macro-economy and industry development view, we will invite the main bodies of China overseas investment such as famous state-owned enterprises, private enterprises, listed enterprises and small and medium-sized enterprises; financial institutions such as policy banks, commercial banks, investment banks, investment companies and stock equity fund; official and semi-official overseas investment organizations of China central and local governments; the main national associations and chambers of commerce and industry; overseas investment service agencies such as investment consulting agencies, accounting firms and law firms to attend this fair. It will serve as a professional, authoritative and effective interactive platform to develop investment cooperation between China and all the investment host countries.

Taking "create a win-win situation and promote China overseas investment cooperation" as the subject, we will invite: the senior officials from China government, who are in charge of overseas investment, to release the latest policies regarding China overseas investment; the leaders of Chinese enterprises to elaborate overseas investment strategies; the authorities and experts to prospect the trend of overseas investment; the renowned international scholars to interpret the latest concept and frontier theory of international investment and the distinguished guests from host countries to give speeches which would take the forum as a window for images promotion as well as a platform for exchanging ideas.

As for all the government agencies, enterprises and non-profit organizations from different investment host countries, participation in the fair means a full access to the system of China overseas investment, covering from central to local, from governments to enterprises, from the real economy to the financial service, from infrastructures to high technologies, from Greenfield investment to equity merger and acquisition. The fair should provide a great opportunity to exchange value information within a short period of time, and the information includes the investment or commercial opportunity, industry updates, networking, which otherwise would take several months or even longer to obtain.

Now, great opportunities lie ahead, along with the spreading global financial crisis while it's a far-seeing option to attend this fair and all the attendees will definitely gain a winning advantage in the impending flourishing era of China overseas investment.

We sincerely invite you to attend China Overseas Investment Fair with the expectation of starting win-win co-operation in all areas of overseas investment. Together, we can make great contribution to benefits of people all over the world.
